RELIEF SHIP FOR GERMANS IS URGED

BERLIN, Sept. 6.—Bishop Neelsen, of Zurich, Switzerland, and members of the war emergency reconstruction commission of the American Methodist Church, who have been traveling over central Europe, sent a telegram to the board of foreign missions as follows:
 "Ten days' investigation among reliable and authoritative sources and a conference with representatives of German Methodism warrants the carefully drawn conclusion of desperate conditions requiring prompt relief for our people. Sugars, fats, condensed and malted milks, shoes, layettes and clothing of all kinds, especially for women and children, are needed.
 Five hundred decessions are destitute of essential clothing. A large relief ship should be sent at the earliest practicable moment."

HAPPENINGS IN SOCIETY

News of Official Society and the Diplomats—Belgian Sovereigns to Travel on George Washington

KING ALBERT and Queen Elizabeth of Belgium, who, with Crown Prince Leopold, will sail for the United States on September 22, will cross the Atlantic on the George Washington aboard which President Wilson made his voyages to Europe to attend the peace conference. Their majesties will embark at Antwerp.

Mrs. Marshall President.
 Mrs. Marshall, wife of the Vice President, presided at the weekly meeting and luncheon yesterday of the ladies of the Senate circle, of which she is chairman. There were twenty-four members present, an almost unprecedented number for this season of the year. They will meet hereafter on Tuesdays instead of Fridays, beginning next week, and as formerly, the room of the Senate office building set aside for their Red Cross work. The hour will be a little earlier than formerly, 11 o'clock, and they will continue to take their lunches, picnic fashion. They have a large amount of work before them for the Red Cross, principally for the men at the Walter Reed Hospital.

Jussarands in New York.
 The French Ambassador and Mme.
 Jussarand, who are in New York for the Lafayette Day celebration today, are staying at the Holland House.

Dr. Thomas A. LeBreton, Ambassador of Argentina, is in New York on business for the embassy and will be away until Tuesday. Mme. LeBreton, who is in Paris, is expected in this country in October.

The Brazilian embassy has leased the residence 1603 H street, formerly the home of the late Henry Adams, and has established offices there. The new Ambassador of Brazil, Fortuna Xavier, formerly Brazilian Minister to Great Britain, is on his way to this country and will make his home at the new embassy.

Carter Glass Goes Home.
 Carter Glass, Secretary of the Treasury, left town last evening for his country home at Lynchburg, Va., to spend the week-end with Mrs.
 Glass and their daughters. Secretary and Mrs. Glass are hunting for a suitable residence for the coming winter.

The Postmaster General and Mrs.
 Burleson, who were expected back in Washington early this week, are prolonging their visit in Canada. Mr.
 Burleson will probably reach Washington on Monday, but Mrs. Burleson will be away a week longer.

Mrs. David Franklin Houston, wife of the Secretary of Agriculture, who is at Wood's Hole, Mass., will return to Washington tomorrow during September, the date depending on the City, has been nominated by President Wilson to be Minister of Bolivia to succeed the late John D. O'Rear.

 Since the death of Mr. O'Rear more than a year ago, the position has been in charge of the first secretary.

Mrs. Leigh C. Palmer, wife of Captain Palmer, U. S. N., will sail on September 25 for California via the Panama Canal. She will spend the winter on the West Coast to be near Captain Palmer who is with the Pacific fleet.

Col. Joseph H. Earle, Engineer Corps, U. S. A., and Mrs. Earle are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter at Charleston, S. C., where they are now stationed. Mrs.
 Earle was formerly Miss Virginia Wheeler, of Washington.

The visitors were entertained at luncheon yesterday by Mr. and Mrs.
 Arthur Curtis James.

Secretary to Post Secretary.
 The Secretary of War and Mrs.
 Baker and their young son left yesterday morning by motor for Fort Mc-Henry, where the Secretary went for an inspection of the hospital. The party will remain in Baltimore today for the performance of "The Overcoat" at the Auditorium Theater by the wounded men from the hospital for the benefit of the winter flower fund of general hospital No. 2.

The Secretary of the Interior and Mrs. Lane and Mrs. Joseph Hampson were dinner guests of H. H. Adams, of Texas, last evening at the Shoreham, where the host is staying. Mrs.
 Hampson has just returned from the West and New York.

Congressman and Mrs. Champ Clark will go to New York to meet General Pershing's ship when it docks on Monday. Mrs. Clark is returning on the same ship after some years in France. Mrs. Clark returned to town this morning after making a series of visits in Missouri.

The launching of the great freighter named for the new President of Brazil, Dr. Spizack, today took place at Harriman, Pa. today was attended by an interesting little company of guests, among them Albert de Ipanema Moreira, charge d'affaires of Brazil, and members of the embassy staff and Mr. and Mrs. Julius Lay. Mrs. Lay christened the vessel.

Miss Adelaide Heath and Capt. Arthur Haldene Doig, U. S. A., have selected October 15 for their wedding date. The ceremony will be performed at noon in old St. John's Church. There will be no reception.
 Invitations will shortly be sent out by Miss Heath's aunt, Miss Mary Mason Heath. The engagement of Miss Heath to Captain Doig was announced in the spring by the former's aunt.
